Mr. Chas. Bowers,

Los Angeles, Cal.

Dear Charlie:

Thanks for the remittance.

As to publishing two books, one for high voice and one for low, I fear that would be impossible-- though of course I see your point of view. You sabe my object is to save the Songs for mere Human Beings, and the Professionals-- who can easily themselves transpose the Songs to suit their own voice or get them transposed-- will have to look out for themselves! The Professionals would never make a Book of this sort self-supporting. It is for Common Use. I wish you could have been with me last Tuesday night at the Pasadena High School at Arthur Farwell's Community Sing. It is not a regular chorus, but just whoever happens in. There were about 800; and they "ate up" the Spanish Songs with more relish than any of the old English favorites they sang. It would have done your heart good.

Aside from all the entanglements, next Sunday night, March 2, the Noise of the March Hares will be here at this, my house, and I want you and Ruth to be with us, eight o'clock or so. Hereof fail not.

Love to both of you,

Always Your Friend,

CHARLES BOWES

Hail to the Chief, then do it again.

Greetings, esteemed sir,

When you put out another volume of these songs, shoot the prices up, also suggest high & low voices, as so darn few sing medium range.
Ruth joins me in the best

to you & yours

Sincerely
Charlie
